I am aware of and able to express my feelings and am developing the ability to talk about them.	I know that we all experience a variety of thoughts and emotions that affect how we feel and behave and I am learning ways of managing them.	I understand that there are people I can talk to and that there are a number of ways in which I can gain access to practical and emotional support to help me and others in a range of circumstances.	I understand that my feelings and reactions can change depending upon what is happening within and around me. This helps me to understand my own behaviour and the way others behave.	I know that friendship, caring, sharing, fairness, equality and love are important in building positive relationships. As I develop and value relationships, I care and show respect for myself and others.	I understand the importance of mental wellbeing and that this can be fostered and strengthened through personal coping skills and positive relationships. I know that it is not always possible to enjoy good mental health and that if this happens there is support available.	I am learning skills and strategies which will support me in challenging times, particularly in relation to change and loss.	As I explore Christian stories, images, music and poems, I am becoming familiar with some beliefs Christian people have about God and Jesus.	As I play and learn, I am developing my understanding of what is fair and unfair and the importance of caring for, sharing and cooperating with others.	I am becoming aware of the importance of celebrations, festivals and customs in Christian people's lives.	As I explore stories, images, music and poems, I am becoming familiar with the beliefs of the world religions I am learning about.	I am developing a sense of size and amount by observing, exploring, using and communicating with others about things in the world around me.	I have explored numbers, understanding that they represent quantities, and can use them to count, create sequences and describe order.	I use practical materials and can 'count on' and 'back' to help me to understand addition and subtraction, recording my ideas and solutions in different ways.	I can share out a group of items by making smaller groups and can split a whole object into smaller parts.	I am developing my awareness of how money is used and can recognise and use a range of coins.	I am aware of how routines and events in my world link with times and seasons and have explored ways to record and display these using clocks, calendars and other methods.

I understand that people can feel alone and can be misunderstood and left out by others. I am learning how to give appropriate support.	As I explore the rights to which I and others are entitled, I am able to exercise these rights appropriately and accept the responsibilities that go with them. I show respect for the rights of others.	I recognise that each individual has a unique blend of abilities and needs. I contribute to making my school community one which values individuals equally and is a welcoming place for all.	I make full use of and value the opportunities I am given to improve and manage my learning and, in turn, I can help to encourage learning and confidence in others.	Representing my class, school and / or wider community encourages my self-worth and confidence and allows me to contribute to and participate in society.	Through contributing my views, time and talents, I play a part in bringing about positive change in my school and wider community.	I value the opportunities I am given to make friends and be part of a group in a range of situations.	As I play and learn, I am developing my understanding of what is fair and unfair and the importance of caring for, sharing and cooperating with others.	I am becoming aware of the importance of celebrations, festivals and customs in religious people's lives.	I am developing respect for others and my understanding of their beliefs and values.	As I play and learn, I am developing my understanding of what is fair and unfair and why caring and sharing are important.	I have experimented with everyday items as units of measure to investigate and compare sizes and amounts in my environment, sharing my findings with others.	I have spotted and explored patterns in my own and the wider environment and can copy and create my own patterns.	I enjoy investigating objects and shapes and can sort, describe and be creative with them.	In movement, games and using technology I can use simple directions and describe positions.	I have had fun creating a range of symmetrical pictures and patterns using a range of media.	I can collect objects and ask questions to gather information, organising and displaying my findings in different ways.

I am developing my understanding of the human body and can use this knowledge to maintain and improve my wellbeing and health.	I am learning to assess and manage risk, to protect myself and others and to reduce the potential for harm when possible.	I know and can demonstrate how to keep myself and others safe and how to respond in a range of emergency situations.	I know and can demonstrate how to travel safely.	In everyday activity and play, I explore and make choices to develop my learning and interests. I am encouraged to use and share my experiences.	I can describe some of the kinds of work that people do and I am finding out about the wider world of work.	(LIT 0-11a, LIT 0-20a) I enjoy exploring and playing with the patterns and sounds of language and can use what I learn.	(LIT 0-11B) I enjoy exploring and choosing stories and other texts to watch, read or listen to, and can share my likes and dislikes.	I enjoy exploring events and characters in stories and other texts, sharing my thoughts in different ways.	(ENG 0-03a, GAI 0-03a) As I listen and talk in different situations, I am learning to take turns and am developing an awareness of when to talk and when to listen.	I listen or watch for useful or interesting information and I use this to make choices or learn new things.	I can match objects and sort using my own and others' criteria, sharing my ideas with others.	I can use the signs and chart around me for information, helping me plan and make choices and decisions in my daily life.	I have observed living things in the environment over time and am becoming aware of how they depend on each other.	I have helped to grow plants and can name their basic parts. I can talk about how they grow and what I need to do to look after them.	04a I have experienced, used and described a wide range of toys and common appliances. I can say 'what makes it go' and say what they do when they work.	By investigating how water can change from one form to another, I can relate my findings to everyday experiences.

I am learning to move my body well, exploring how to manage and control it and finding out how to use and share space.	I am developing my movement skills through practice and energetic play.	I am aware of my own and others' needs and feelings especially when taking turns and sharing resources. I recognise the need to follow rules.	By exploring and observing movement, I can describe what I have learned about it.	25a I am enjoying daily opportunities to participate in different kinds of energetic play, both outdoors and indoors.	I know that being active is a healthy way to be.	(LIT 0-16a, ENG 0-17a, GAI 0-17A) To help me understand stories and other texts, I ask questions and link what I am learning with what I already know.	Within real and imaginary situations, I share experiences and feelings, ideas and information in a way that communicates my message.	(LIT 0-31a) I enjoy exploring events and characters in stories and other texts and I use what I learn to invent my own, sharing these with others in imaginative ways.	As I listen and take part in conversations and discussions, I discover new words and phrases which I use to help me express my ideas, thoughts and feelings.	(LIT 0-01a, LIT 0-20a) I enjoy exploring and playing with the patterns and sounds of language and can use what I learn.	I have experienced the wonder of looking at the vastness of the sky, and can recognise the sun, moon and stars and link them to daily patterns of life.	Through everyday experiences and play with a variety of toys and other objects, I can recognise simple types of forces and describe their effects.	I know how to stay safe when using electricity. I have helped to make a display to show the importance of electricity in our daily lives.	Through play, I have explored a variety of ways of making sounds.	I can identify my senses and use them to explore the world around me.	Through creative play, I explore different materials and can share my reasoning for selecting materials for different purposes.
